I. THE PLEA

DEFENDANT'S PLEA

The defendant agrees to voluntarily plead guilty to and admits to being guilty of the following charges in the Eastern District of Oklahoma:

Count	Offense	Statute
1	Threatening Interstate Communications	18 U.S.C. § 875(c)
2	Stalking	18 U.S.C. 2261A(2)(B)
3	Threatening Interstate Communications	18 U.S.C. § 875(c)
4	Stalking	18 U.S.C. 2261A(2)(B)

Defendant Initials RL

MAXIMUM POSSIBLE IMPRISONMENT AND/OR FINE

The defendant understands that the maximum possible penalty for Threatening Interstate Communications is imprisonment for a period of five (5) years and/or a fine of $250,000.00, a term of supervised release of up to three years to be determined by the Court, and a special assessment in the amount of $100.00, and that the maximum possible penalty for Stalking is imprisonment for a period of five (5) years and/or a fine of $250,000.00, a term of supervised release of up to 3 years to be determined by the Court, and a special assessment in the amount of $100.00. The defendant understands that the Court may impose a fine pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984. The willful failure to pay any fine imposed by the Court, in full, may be considered a breach of this plea agreement. Further, the defendant acknowledges that willful failure to pay the fine may subject the defendant to additional criminal violations and civil penalties pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3611, et seq.

FACTUAL BASIS FOR PLEA

The defendant agrees that if this matter were to proceed to trial, the United States could prove the following facts beyond a reasonable doubt, and that these facts accurately represent the defendant's provable offense conduct and specific offense characteristics:

On May 4, 2020, the Defendant sent an email containing an "anonymous tip" to the Fort Gibson Police Department, warning that A.P. planned to shoot people in downtown Fort Gibson, Oklahoma. The email tip was sent by an email address with a domain name of protonmail, a Swiss email service. The tip, sent by the Defendant, also included a fabricated screen shot of a text message explaining that A.P. planned to use "2 custom AR-15s" with "3000 ammo going to sit down town fort Gibson and end people." As a result, Fort Gibson police investigated the tip and spoke with A.P. and R.P. about this threat, which A.P. and R.P. denied. Following this harassment, Google records for accounts belonging to the Defendant contained records of searches involving

A.P., a spoof email, and records of a visit to a website that creates disguised, or spoof, email addresses. As a result of the harassment, A.P. and R.P. sought a protective order on May 5, 2020, from Muskogee County, Oklahoma.

On May 8, 2020, the Defendant posted a public message on a website, Doxbin, claiming to be A.P. and threatening to shoot five Fort Gibson Police Officers with “two custom AR-15s.” Doxbin, an interactive computer service, uses servers located outside the United States. The Doxbin post claimed that A.P. had been fired and that his wife was leaving him and taking their children. In the public message, the Defendant claimed to know the officers schedules, and the message divulged the names, birth dates, phone numbers, email addresses, and home addresses of five Fort Gibson police officers. A Google account belonging to the Defendant contained a document that comprised the identical message publicly posted on Doxbin regarding the Fort Gibson police personnel. Law Enforcement personnel located in New York City reported the Doxbin post to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Beginning in February 2020, the Defendant began saving records in his Google accounts of photos of J.C., an acquaintance, other internet content, a photograph of J.C.’s driver’s license, and J.C.’s medical marijuana card. The Defendant also began communicating over Discord, an internet-based chat program where a user can share files. Discord is an electronic communications service. Records from Discord for the Defendant’s account revealed that the Defendant asked about destroying someone’s credit and directed other Discord users to a webpage containing information about J.C., his girlfriend, and her family. On June 11, 2020, the Defendant engaged in a group internet conversation where he provided website containing information about J.C., and he asked, “What’s the best way to frame someone, you think? I order pizza, swat, boxes, taxis, cranes to this kids house what else could i? Running out of stuff.”

On June 11, 2020, the Defendant posted a public message on Doxbin, claiming to be J.C., and threatening to shoot six Wagoner County Police Officers “with my two custom AR-15s.” The Doxbin message identified J.C. and claimed that his girlfriend left him. The message also identified the girlfriend, R.F., by name. In some instances, the message used identical language as the message posted on May 8, 2020, related to A.P. The public message also included the names, birth dates, phone numbers, email addresses, and home addresses of six Wagoner Police Department Officers, including the Chief of Police, Deputy Chief, and four police officers. On June 11, 2020, J.S., located outside of Oklahoma, observed the Doxbin message and notified law enforcement about the message. Google accounts belonging to the Defendant contained records from June 11, 2020, of searches for “A.P. For Gibson” and “hit list doxbin,” in an effort to search for the earlier, similar message involving A.P. The message posted on Doxbin was also created in a document, contained in these Google account records.

The defendant understands that defendant will have to swear under oath to the accuracy of this statement, and if defendant should be called upon to testify about this matter in the future, any inconsistencies in such testimony may subject defendant to additional penalties of perjury which may be enforced by the United States under this agreement.

II. LIMITATIONS OF THE AGREEMENT

NO OTHER CHARGES (TAX CHARGES EXCLUDED)

The United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Oklahoma agrees that it will not bring any other criminal charges against the defendant which are known to the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Oklahoma as of the date of this agreement. However, nothing in this agreement will limit prosecution for criminal tax charges, if any, arising out of such offenses.

COURT, IRS & OTHERS NOT BOUND

The defendant understands that the Court is not a party to and is not bound by this agreement nor any recommendations made by the parties. Nothing in this agreement shall limit the Internal Revenue Service in its collection of any taxes, interest or penalties due from the defendant arising out of or related in any way to the offenses identified in this agreement. Nothing in this agreement shall bind any other federal, state or local district, jurisdiction or law enforcement agency.

The defendant waives and agrees to waive any rights under the Speedy Trial Act.

- d. the defendant waives the right to collaterally attack the conviction and sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255, except for claims based on ineffective assistance of counsel;

- f. the defendant waives the right to appeal the District Court's determination of the amount of restitution and the Court's subsequent restitution order, if any; and
- g. the defendant waives the right to appeal the District Court's determination of any forfeiture issues and the Court's subsequent forfeiture order, if any.

WAIVER OF "DEPARTURE" AND "VARIANCE" RIGHTS

In consideration of the promises and concessions made by the United States in this Plea Agreement, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily agrees and understands the following waiver of rights:

- a. the defendant waives the right to request, recommend, or file a "departure" motion with the U.S. Probation Office or Court recommending a sentence below the Guidelines range through application of Chapters Four or Five of the Sentencing Guidelines; and
- b. the defendant waives the right to request, recommend, or file a "variance" motion with the U.S. Probation Office or Court requesting a sentence below the Guidelines range through the application of 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a).

The defendant has been represented by counsel, and is fully satisfied with the services rendered by the defense attorney(s) and agrees that such representation has been competent legal representation and has provided the best result for the defendant possible under the circumstances of this case. The defendant expressly acknowledges that counsel has explained defendant's trial, sentencing, appellate and post-conviction rights; that defendant understands these rights; and that defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives and relinquishes those rights as set forth above.

IV. WITHDRAWAL OF PLEA OR BREACH OF AGREEMENT

WITHDRAWAL OF PLEA

If the Court imposes a sentence with which the defendant is dissatisfied, the defendant will not be permitted to withdraw any guilty plea for that reason alone, nor will the defendant be permitted to withdraw any plea should the Court decline to follow any recommendations by any of the parties to this agreement.

BREACH OF AGREEMENT

In the event the United States believes the defendant has failed to fulfill any obligations under this agreement, committed any local, state, tribal or federal offense after execution of this agreement or has falsely implicated an innocent person in the commission of a crime, the United States shall, in its discretion, have the options of declaring any provision of this agreement null and void. The defendant and the United States agree that in the event the Court concludes that the defendant has breached this agreement:

- a. the defendant will not be permitted to withdraw any guilty plea(s) tendered under this agreement and agrees not to petition for withdrawal of any guilty plea(s);
- b. the United States will be free to make any recommendations to the Court regarding sentencing in this case;

Defendant Initials PL

- c. any evidence or statements made by the defendant during any cooperation phase will be admissible at any trials or sentencings; and
- d. the United States will be free to bring any other charges it has against the defendant.

RE-INSTITUTION OF PROSECUTION

If defendant's guilty plea is rejected, withdrawn, vacated, or reversed at any time, the United States will be free to prosecute the defendant for all charges of which it then has knowledge, and any charges that have been dismissed will be automatically reinstated or may be represented to a grand jury with jurisdiction over the matter. In such event, defendant waives any objections, motions or defenses based upon the Statute of Limitations, Speedy Trial Act, or any constitutional restrictions as to the time of bringing such charges.

V. CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS ACT PROVISIONS

CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS ACT (18 U.S.C. § 3771)

Pursuant to the Crime Victims' Rights Act (18 U.S.C. § 3771) and the regulations promulgated under the Act by the Attorney General of the United States, the defendant understands that a crime victim has the following rights:

- a. The right to be reasonably protected from the accused.
- b. The right to reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of any public court proceeding, involving the crime or of any release or escape of the accused.
- c. The right not to be excluded from any such public court proceeding, unless the court, after receiving clear and convincing evidence, determines that testimony by the victim would be materially altered if the victim heard other testimony at the proceeding.
- d. The right to be reasonably heard at any public proceeding in the district court involving release, plea or sentencing. The defendant understands that the victim's comments and recommendations may be different from those of the parties to this agreement.
- e. The reasonable right to confer with the attorney for the Government in the case. The defendant understands that the victim's opinions and recommendations may be different from those presented by the United States.
- f. The right to full and timely restitution as provided by law, including, but not limited to, restitution for property loss, personal injury or death.

- g. The right to proceedings free from unreasonable delay.
- h. The right to be treated with fairness and with respect for the victim's dignity and privacy.

The definition of "crime victim" under the Crime Victims' Rights is a person directly and proximately harmed as a result of the commission of a Federal offense. In the case of a crime victim who is under 18 years of age, incompetent, incapacitated, or deceased, the legal guardians of the crime victim or the representatives of the crime victim's estate, family members, or any other persons appointed as suitable by the court, may assume the crime victim's rights. In no event, shall the defendant be named as such guardian or representative.

VI. PRE-SENTENCE REPORT AND SENTENCING PROVISIONS

INFORMATION TO BE CONSIDERED AT SENTENCING

The defendant understands that the United States may bring to the Court's attention, and the Court may consider, all relevant information with respect to the defendant's background, character and conduct, including the conduct that is the subject of the charges which the United States has agreed to dismiss, and the nature and extent of the defendant's cooperation, if any. The United States may bring to the Court's attention and the Court may consider any failure by the defendant to fulfill any obligation under this agreement.

Stipulations

The defendant and the United States agree and stipulate the following conditions should be included in the judgment as conditions of the Defendant's supervised release:

- a. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer with access to any on-line computer service at any location (including place of employment) without the prior written approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet Service provider, bulletin board system or any other public or private network or e-mail system
- b. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, electronic communication, data storage device, media, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of probation/supervised release.

- c. The defendant shall consent to the United States Probation Officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations, without individual showing of reasonable suspicion, on any computer equipment, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media used by the defendant. The examination may include assistance of other law enforcement agencies. This may include retrieval and copying of all data from the computer and any internal or external peripherals to ensure compliance with conditions and/or removal of such equipment for the purposes of conducting a more thorough inspection. The defendant shall have no expectation of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer. The defendant shall warn any other significant third parties that the computer(s) may be subject to monitoring.

The defendant understands that neither the Court nor the United States Probation Office is bound by the foregoing stipulation(s), whether such stipulations relate to questions of fact or law or to the determination of the correct advisory sentencing guideline calculation.

SENTENCING RECOMMENDATION(S)

Acceptance of Responsibility and Third Point Motion

Counsel for the defendant has affirmatively indicated that the defendant not only wishes to enter a plea of guilty, but also clearly demonstrates a recognition and affirmative acceptance of responsibility as required by the sentencing guidelines. Provided that the defendant clearly demonstrates acceptance of responsibility in a timely manner, the United States agrees to recommend a two-point reduction in the offense level pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1. If the defendant can adequately demonstrate this recognition and affirmative acceptance of responsibility to the Court, the United States Attorney's Office will move that the defendant receive a third-point reduction in the defendant's offense level for acceptance of responsibility, if the defendant is eligible for such relief under the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The failure of the Court to find that the defendant is entitled to a reduction for acceptance of responsibility shall not be a basis to void this plea agreement.

VII. FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURES

The defendant agrees to disclose all assets in which the defendant has any interest or over which the defendant exercises control, directly or indirectly, including those held by a spouse, nominee or third party. The defendant agrees to truthfully complete a Financial Disclosure Statement no later than the date of the change of plea hearing, signed under penalty of perjury and provide the same to the United States Attorney's Office and the United States Probation Office. The defendant further agrees to provide updates with any material changes in circumstances, as described in 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k) within seven days of the event giving rise to the change of circumstances. The parties agree that the defendant's failure to timely and accurately complete and sign the Financial Disclosure Statement, and any update thereto, may, in addition to any other penalty or remedy, constitute a failure of the defendant to accept responsibility pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1.

The defendant expressly authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to obtain a credit report on the defendant. The defendant further agrees to provide waivers, consents or releases requested by the United States Attorney's Office to access records to verify the financial information. The defendant also authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to inspect and copy all financial documents and financial information held by the United State Probation Office.

The defendant agrees to submit to an examination under oath and/or a polygraph examination by an examiner selected by the United States Attorney's Office, on the issue of the defendant's assets and financial disclosures.

The defendant agrees to notify the Asset Recovery Unit (ARU) of the United States Attorney's Office before the defendant transfers any interest in property with a value exceeding $1000.00 owned directly or indirectly, individually or jointly, by the defendant, including any interest held or owned under any name, including trusts, partnerships or corporations.

RESTITUTION INVOLVING OFFENSE OF CONVICTION

The defendant agrees to make full restitution in full accordance with a schedule to be determined by the Court. Even if the defendant does not agree to full restitution, the defendant also understand that restitution for the full loss caused by the defendant's conduct may be imposed by the Court and, if so imposed, shall be a condition of any probation or term of supervised release that the defendant receives.

The defendant understands that if the offense of conviction occurred after April 24, 1996, restitution is mandatory without regard to the defendant's ability to pay.

RESTITUTION FOR OTHER OFFENSES OR FOR RELEVANT CONDUCT NOT RESULTING IN CONVICTION

The defendant agrees the Court's consideration of the amount of restitution shall NOT be limited to the amounts alleged in the counts to which the defendant is pleading guilty, and may include all relevant conduct in addition to any stipulated amounts set forth above, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663. Therefore, the defendant also agrees that restitution is due to victims of any offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(1)(A) that is not the offense of conviction, but nonetheless gave rise to this plea agreement:

The defendant understands and agrees that the total amount of any monetary judgment the Court orders the defendant to pay will be due and payable immediately. The defendant further understands and agrees that pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3614, the defendant may be resentenced to any sentence which might have originally been imposed if the Court determines the defendant has knowingly and willfully refused to pay a fine or restitution as ordered or has failed to make sufficient bona fide efforts to pay a fine or restitution. Additionally, the defendant acknowledges and agrees the government may enforce collection of any fine or restitution imposed in this case pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3572, 3613 and 3664(m), notwithstanding any initial or subsequent modified payment schedule set by the Court. The defendant further understands any monetary debt the defendant owes related to this matter may be included in the Treasury Offset Program (TOP) to potentially offset the defendant's federal retirement benefits, tax refunds, and other federal benefits.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(b)(F), the defendant agrees that until a fine or restitution order is paid in full, the defendant must notify the United States Attorney's Office (ARU) of any changes in the mailing address or residence address within 30 days of such change. Further, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k), the defendant shall notify the court and the United States Attorney's Office (ARU) immediately any change in economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution, including, but not limited to, new or changed employment, increases in income, inheritances, monetary gifts or any other acquisition of assets or money.

VIII. OTHER TERMS

PLACE OF CONFINEMENT

At the time of sentencing, the United States will not object to a request by the defendant that the Court recommend that the Bureau of Prisons consider the following in determining the defendant's place of confinement: . The defendant understands that the Bureau of Prisons is not bound by recommendations from the Court.

IX. CONTRACTUAL SPECIFICATIONS
